ACADEMICS

Concrete foundations for our lives have been laid by study. This was the first step on the way to our ambitions and goals in life. We rediscovered age-old truths and yet looked ahead to the future. In our modern world we became aware of change. We gave it our best and won.

Religion Reflected

Religion at Bishop Luers was more than something we studied for fifty-five minutes every day. It was reflected in our conduct in and out of school.

Daily Mass was offered in the chapel at 7:45 for the convenience of the students. On First Fridays the whole student body attended Mass in the gymnasium.

During the months of October and May two classes each day had Benediction and devotions to the Blessed Mother in the chapel.

During the year a two-day retreat was conducted by the students. Our retreat master on April 26 and 27, 1964, was Rev. Odo Lambert, O.F.M.

Social Studies

Promote Good Citizenship

Since 1964 was an election year for the highest offices in the land, our social studies classes were full of debates, campaign speeches, and voting.

Senior civics classes held regular debates on the issues of the day, discussions on the presidential candidates and the party platforms, and finally voted. Juniors studied our domestic problems and the make-up of our important documents, and held their elections too. Sophomore boys studied geographical effects and conditions in their course in economic geography. The freshman classes considered world affairs, varying from the Stone Ages to the Modern Era.

Striving

for Understanding

Understanding among nations depends upon the ability to communicate. Our language department provided the opportunities to study three languages.

All classes studied English throughout the year. Literature, composition, and grammar were our main courses in English. Latin I and II were offered to freshmen and sophomores. If juniors and seniors wanted more language training, Spanish I and II and Latin III and IV were available to them.

A Challenge to

A rousing game of soccer on the athletic field, an observation of cell division under the microscope, two boys delving into the mysteries of physics—these scenes and many others went into the scientific explorations and discoveries at Bishop Luers this year.

In freshman year knowledge was gained and put into practice in physical education. As sophomores all students took biology and health for the primary fundamentals of science. For those who wanted to further their scientific education, general and lab chemistry were offered in the junior year. Seniors had an opportunity to study general or lab physics.

Young Minds

Math Develops

Mental Capacities

A language of science, a tool of business, mathematics played an important role in a student's learning and mental development. Opportunity for strong math background was provided.

Algebra I was required for all students. Geometry, advanced algebra, and Math IV (trigonometry and analytic geometry) were offered if students desired to reach higher levels in math. Business math offered training for future use in office work. Mechanical drawing was taught to the boys interested in engineering or another technological field.

In mathematics understanding and application held the key to knowledge.

Hands Working

for Tomorrow

Hands with a purpose proved to be the key to success this year. Determination plus talent was exhibited in art classes as sophomores, juniors, and seniors strove for a finished creation of beauty. The home economics lab was another setting for the perseverance and determination required in finding success.

Juniors and seniors were given the chance for achievement in business skills. Deciphering of shorthand symbols was a must for the good stenographer and secretary of the future. The typing classes taken were beneficial to the student for business or future education. The bookkeeping course was good training for those who enjoy working with numbers in the business field.

ORGANIZATIONS

Organizations were the facets of society at Bishop Luers. Through them we increased our potential, instill self-confidence, and develop character. School spirit was personified in the club participation. In this way students contributed to the echoes of the past and prepared for the annals of the future.

ATHLETICS

The majority of students found themselves in the midst of the screaming multitude cheering "their" team to victory. Others found themselves working long hours perfecting the hook shot on the basketball floor, smashing the blocking dummies on the football field, or grinding out mileage on the straight-away. Each athlete had his own special technique, sometimes unorthodox, but always unique. This individual approach plus the common spirit of "never say die" put together a team that was mighty hard to beat.

Football '64

Quarterback Tom Schilling lets one go behind the protection of fullback Mike Sorg.

The Luers Football team, during its four years in existence has maintained the best won-lost record in the City Series race. They have established a very impressive percentage of .714 followed by North Side with a .652 percentage.

Before the season began, Phil Miller, Bob Mitsch, Tom Cavacini, and John O'Reilly were elected co-captains by the team. John O'Reilly, 1963 City Scoring Champ (as a junior) scored a total of 66 points to be the second highest city scorer in 1964.

Phil Miller, Mike Forbing, Tom Cavacini, John O'Reilly, and Bob Mitsch were selected for the All City Team.

Tom Schilling completed 24 passes for a total of 409 yards. Forbing booted 28 punts with an average of 33.3 yards per kick. In the rushing department John O'Reilly carried the ball 144 times for an average of 5.4 yards per carry, Cavacini ran 111 times for an average of 5.3 yards per carry.

When the season ended, Mitsch and O'Reilly were both elected as co-winners of the Most Valuable Player Award.

Luers' game with St. Joseph of South Bend, the number one team in the state, proved to be the highlight of the season. Fighting fiercely, the Knights held St. Joe to a 7 point lead. However, with only 2 min. and 13 sec. left to play, Luers fumbled twice. St. Joe took advantage of the situation, scored twice, and the Indians were victorious at home with a 27-6 victory.

Two Louisville defenders hit the turf as O'Reilly maneuvers down the sideline.

Basketball '64

Coach Jamroz gives last minute instructions.

The Knights' basketball team staged a great comeback this year! Practically the same squad which last year lost all but two games compiled a total of 12 wins and 9 defeats. This year's brand of basketball was exciting to say the least. There were three overtime games, versus South Side, Monroeville, and Leo, all of which were won by Luers. In one of the highlights of the season, we won the first two games of the Allen County Tournament, but lost in the finals to Woodlan, 63-59.

During the season the Knights played C. C. and South twice, winning one from both. The South game win came in overtime, 70-69. Phil Miller broke the school scoring record (his own of last year) of 340 points, set a new record of 32 points in one game, and tied his own record of 14 successive foul shots in the final home game. Roger Reuille led the team with a percentage of .470 for shooting. Mike Forbing and Gaylord Farrell recorded .442 and .448 shooting percentages respectively. Forbing also led all players with a total of 240 rebounds for the season.

Track '64

This season Luers Varsity Track Team scored big victories over C. C., Woodlan, and Hicksville. In the sectional the Knights finished 8th out of 24, picking up a total of nine points. Glen Lees picked up a total of five points, winning the 440 yard dash with an excellent 51 sec. effort. J. O'Reilly ran a 10.1 sec. 100 yd. dash, good for 2 points and a third place in the finals. Phil Miller added 1 point with a fourth place finish in the 120 yd. high hurdles in 15.6 sec. Our relay team, O'Reilly, Quinlan, Lauer, and Lees, picked up a point with a fourth place finish in a time of 1:35.4 sec.

John O'Reilly and Glen Lees picked up the most points for the season, O'Reilly with 82 and Lees with 62.

Cross Country '64

After losing to Elmhurst in the first event the Luers Cross Country team went on to win the remainder of the scheduled meets. The much improved team finished thirteenth with a score of 317 in the sectional Cross Country meet. Kevin Lawler was the Knights' fastest finisher, capturing the number 40 position.

In the total number of points scored by individuals, Kevin Lawler led with 36, Gene Donnelly followed with 24, and Dan Gilliland held the number 3 position with 21 points. The fine talent of the Cross Country members contributed to a very successful season.

Golf '64

The linksmen from Luers faced a challenging 1964 season. The rapidly improving golf team finished the season with a record of 3 wins, 7 losses and 1 tie.

Juniors Roger McIntyre and Rick Sealover won letters with averages of 42.4 and 44.4, respectively. Sophomore Pat McAleavy finished with a 44.1 average. With all members returning there are good chances for a much better 1965 season.

Varsity Cheerleaders for 1964-65 are Kathy Steffen, Peggy Klier (Captain), Colleen Shank, and Linda Lee.

Two Bits!

The cheerleaders' job was important. They kept everyone's spirits up when the future looked dim; they led the students in victorious cheer. Their long hours of practice were appreciated by spectators of the athletic events. But more important, they were our examples of perfect sportsmanship and chivalry.

FEATURES

From the accidental school-day happenings to the most anticipated occasions of the year, Luers' social life featured the ingenuity and high spirits of its students. Individual personalities came alive through the acceptance of responsibilities associated with the many various functions. The tedious planning and calculating before, the contagious fun and excitement during, and the magnanimous elation at success after each event became invaluable to us as leaders of tomorrow.

Mike Forbing and Tom Kelleher receive the most valuable player awards for basketball and football respectively.

Athletes Honored at Annual Awards Presentation

The Athletic Awards Banquet was held on May 6, 1964, in the cafeteria. After an introduction by Mr. Powell, president of the Activities Club, Mr. John Gaughn, as guest speaker and coach, expanded upon his rules regarding the athletes. Twenty-two seniors, twenty-two juniors, and nine sophomores were awarded varsity letters. Fifty-seven were awarded reserve letters and fifty-three freshmen were awarded numerals.

The R. J. Hoffman Trophy for the most valuable player was presented to Tom Kelleher, Bishop Luers' first All-State football player and junior Mike Forbing was named recipient of the A. E. Krouse Trophy for the most valuable basketball player.

Honor Students Lauded at Recognition Banquet

Approximately ninety students were honored at the Fourth Annual Scholastic Awards Banquet on Thursday, May 21, 1964. Following the dinner in the cafeteria, the students and their parents had the pleasure of listening to a very impressive address by the guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Richard T. Doermer.

The honor awards were then presented by Rev. Edmund, O.F.M., and Sister M. Ermenilde, O.S.F. The affair was sponsored and planned by the Mothers' Club.

"Far Away Places" Sets Theme of Style Show

Mrs. Howard Shank helps Sharon Schible and Paulette Hankee with their accessories before the show.

The annual fashion show was presented by Franks' Department Store on March 19, 1964, in the school auditorium. An international theme, "Far Away Places," was chosen and students entertained with very appropriate skits and dance routines. The fashions introduced the audience to Spring with a variety of formal and informal attire. The Mothers' Club sponsored the style show.

One of the dance routines is performed by Anita Gorman, Sue Shive, Linda Powell, Jan Powell, Julie Gorman, Mae Graper, and Joyce Nine.

Kathy McArdle conducts a class in one of the skits between fashions.

"Fashions on Parade" Typify Patriotic Air

"Fashions on Parade" was the theme for the autumn style show held on October 27, 1964, in the school auditorium.

All of the ensembles were presented by Frank's Department Store.

The decorations featured a fall motif rich in autumn colors. A blue sky was the background for falling leaves and flags draping the ramp in a patriotic atmosphere.

There were various skits performed to introduce the fashions, and the opening number was a routine done to "When the Knights Go Marching In."

After the showing, the traditional cookies and punch were served.

On May 1 and 3, 1964, "You Can't Take It With You," by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, was presented in the auditorium. Under the direction of Fr. Florentine Rayes, O.F.M., the senior cast successfully blended a combination of farce and real humor into the 1936 Pulitzer Prize winner.

While centering around a successful businessman, the play related the many unusual events that occurred in the lives of his family after he decided to discontinue his daily office routine. As the character relationships were realized, the humor in the play progressively prevailed.

Our "Mouse" Roared!

Tom Kigar and Diane McCoy

Under the direction of Fr. Florentine Rayes, O.F.M., "The Mouse That Roared" was presented to the public on the evenings of December 5 and 6, 1964.

In satirizing the government of the U.S., our defense system, our foreign policy, and by exposing the odd quirks in our typical American reactions and deductions, the play proved to be a very forceful comedy.

The mouse (the minute country of Grand Fenwick) roars by declaring war on the U.S. in the probability of being defeated. Since it is the policy of the U.S. to rehabilitate the conquered country, Grand Fenwick decided this was the perfect opportunity to solve its bankruptcy and regain its economic stability. Due to an uncontrollable event in New York City, Grand Fenwick won the war, thereby presenting more problems.

The difficulties of both countries were solved through negotiation, and then they returned to their normal activities.

Since the time was in this modern day and age, the costumes and set were furnished by Sr. M. Columban, O.S.F., and the art students.

Holidays Feature "Le Magique Du Noel"

Seniors Peggy Klier and Steve Gressley admire the decorations at the Christmas dance.

The annual semi-formal Christmas dance was held on December 30, 1964, in Luers' cafeteria. Holiday Spirit appropriately expressed the theme, "Le Magique Du Noel". The art club under the direction of Sister Columban provided festive decorations. Music for the evening was furnished by the Four Wheels.

Fantasy of Delight

Seniors entering Cutter's Chalat are Mike Coughlin, Mag Roembke, Liz Niezer, Mike Keefer, Peggy Klier, and Pat Pio.

Jean Woerber and Mike Teagarden enjoy the refreshments.

The 1964 Prom Court: Sylvia Lauer, Ann Gilliland, Sally Jo Bradley, Kathy Kapp (seated), Sheila Hayes, Queen Karen Lawler, and Kathy Lambert.

Surrounds Cutter's

The most anticipated social event of 1964 for the upperclassmen was the Junior-Senior Prom. Cutter's Chalet was the site, May 22, 1964, was the date, and "As Time Goes By" the theme.

Time indeed passed by, but not until the evening had presented magnanimous moments of pleasure and excitement for all those attending. The highlight of the prom was the selection of Karen Lawler to reign as queen. Karla Murray, 1963 Prom Queen, was present and had the honor of crowning Queen Karen.

Pictures speak louder than words at the prom.

The graduates at the Baccalaureate Mass.

Eve of Tomorrows Beginning

Deep in thought, the 1964 graduates enter St. John the Baptist Church for the Baccalaureate Mass.

Senior boys enjoy the Baccalaureate Breakfast.

The third graduating class of Bishop Luers High School received their diplomas and awards during the commencement exercises held on May 31, 1964, in the school auditorium.

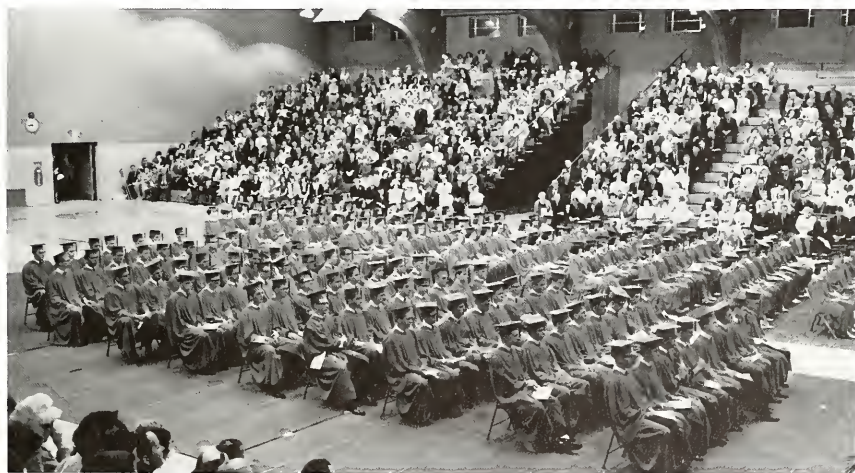

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Rev. Edmund Moore, O.F.M. The commencement address and the diplomas were presented by Monsignor J. William Lester, Superintendent of Catholic Schools. The valedictory and salutatory addresses were delivered by Patricia Powell and Peter Feil respectively.

Prior to the commencement exercises the Baccalaureate Mass was celebrated in St. John the Baptist Church on May 28, 1964, for the one hundred sixty graduates. Rev. Florentine Rayes, O.F.M., was celebrant of the Mass.

Signals Senior Finale

Graduation exercises find the 1964 seniors assembled as a class for the last time.

FACULTY

They taught us to be, as our cornerstone states, "citizens of two worlds". We learned the subjects taught every day in every school throughout the country. But our faculty did more than instruct us along these lines. They were different. Through them we matured spiritually as well as academically. With their help we set our goals in this life, we found our places in the world. They were friends in need, jocular, serious, old, young, vibrant—Bishop Luers' faculty—always here.

Rev. Donnul Suttman, O.F.M.

Father Donnul Assumes Leadership

The personal development of each individual and the excellence of the whole student body are the primary concerns of Rev. Donnul Suttman, O.F.M., principal of Bishop Luers. Father Donnul succeeded Rev. Edmund Moore, O.F.M., as principal in June, 1964.

Having these aims in mind, Father has taken a special interest in our educational and extracurricular functions. He believes that scholastic achievement must be considered first, but that student participation in school activities is an important factor in developing capable and responsible men and women.

A few of the many innovations which Father Donnul has inaugurated are the Student Council, grading system, honor roll requirements, and speech program. One of his major projects has been overseeing the construction of our new west wing. However, the most important result of each of these is the tremendous enthusiasm which is seen and felt throughout the school.

Father was ordained on June 12, 1953. Prior to coming to Luers in 1963, he taught Algebra I and II, trigonometry, and Religion II and coached the freshman football and basketball teams at Roger Bacon, Cincinnati, Ohio. Last year Father taught Algebra I and II, and Math IV, and was assistant treasurer. In addition to his duties as principal, Father Donnul teaches Math IV this year.

We are most grateful to Father Donnul for his tireless efforts and consummate dedication in helping us discover our ambitions and his encouragement in realizing them.

Luers' assistant principal, procurator, and treasurer is Fr. Brian Irving, O.F.M. Father is also the head of the Science Department and instructor of lab and general physics.

Their Jobs Demand Dedication and Discipline

Our Dean of Girls is Sr. M. Ermenilde, O.S.F. She also is in charge of the library and teaches English II.

Fr. Lucius Rigali, O.F.M., is Dean of Boys and moderator of the Student Council. He teaches religion to freshman and sophomore boys.

The door to the office of Fr. Bradan Boehman, O.F.M., is always open to students. Father, our counselor and guidance director, also teaches religion to the seniors.

Administration Helps the

The secretarial work of Mrs. James Hankee aids in maintaining order in the office.

Fr. Labre Begin, O.F.M., is Luers' assistant treasurer. He works with the Boy's Glee Club, is coordinator of the Key Club, and teaches World History and American History.

Br. Luke Simon, O.F.M., is a new addition to the school's administration this year as the assistant treasurer.

School to Function Smoothly

Our spiritual and dramatic director is Fr. Florentine Rayes, O.F.M. The head of the English department, he teaches English IV, and Spanish I and II.

Directing the Glee Club is the responsibility of Sr. M. Antonia, O.S.F. In addition, she teaches English III and IV, and Latin I.

Fr. Arnold Rodriguez, O.F.M., is instructor of World History. He also teaches several Religion I and II classes.

The golf team is under the advisory of Fr. Berard Doerger, O.F.M. He also conducts a Latin I class and Religion I and II classes.

Working Today

Approaching math in a scientific manner is done successfully by Mr. Samuel Bertels. He teaches Algebra I and Business Math.

Instructor of Mechanical Drawing I and II and general chemistry is Fr. Camillus Hogen, O.F.M. He is also moderator of Student Activities and of cross country.

Busy moderator of the Knight Lights is Sr. M. Carol Ann, O.S.F. As head of the Commercial Department, she instructs bookkeeping and Typing I and II.

on Minds of Tomorrow

Latin I and II and Spanish I are instructed by Sr. M. Clarilda, O.S.F. She also directs the Latin Club.

Luers' photography for the KNIGHT LIGHTS and ACCOLADE is handled by Fr. Clyde Young, O.F.M. As coordinator of the Language Department, he instructs Latin III and IV and also teaches geometry.

Algebra I and II, and geometry come under the direction of Fr. Columban Bausch, O.F.M. He also supervises the Servers Club and the Math Club.

Sr. M. Columban, O.S.F., instructs English II and art. She is also in charge of the Art Club.

Aiding Students to Discover

In addition to moderating the Red Cross, Sr. M. Dominic, O.S.F., teaches health and biology to the sophomore girls.

Sr. M. Emmanuel, O.S.F., teaches English II and III, and Shorthand I and II.

Advisor of the ACCOLADE is Fr. Fulgence Howes, O.F.M.. He instructs Religion I and English IV.

Athletic Director at Luers is Mr. John Gaughan. He is the head football and track coach, and assists in basketball. Mr. Gaughan teaches government and economic geography.

Mr. Fred Jamroz is head of the Physical Education Department. He also teaches World History. Mr. Jamroz is our varsity basketball coach and assists in track and football.

Sophomore and junior English classes come under the direction of Fr. Joris Heise, O.F.M. Father also moderates the Safety Council and enforces the "two book" policy of the school.

As head of the Home Ec Department, Sr. M. Josella, O.S.F., instructs various phases of homemaking. She directs the F.H.A. and Veronica Guild.

Fr. Kent Hajduk, O.F.M., is one of our specialists in religion. Five sophomore classes are the object of his approach.

Formulating Ideals

Miss Carolyn Lapp instructs several classes of World and American History. The History Club is under her direction.

Miss Agnes Mahon teaches English I and II. She is also the director of the Freshman and Sophomore Drama Club.

Sr. M. Michael Ann, O.S.F., instructs Algebra I and geometry. She is faculty advisor for the National Honor Society and the Theresians.

as a Basis for Life's Work

One of our new faculty members this year is Mrs. Thomas Nestor. She instructs the freshman girls in Physical Education.

As head of the Social Studies Department, Sr. M. Regina, O.S.F., teaches American History and government. She is also moderator of the National Junior Honor Society.

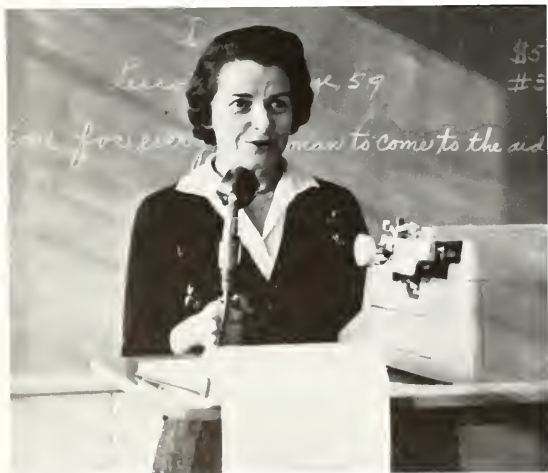

Fr. Roch Farland, O.F.M. holds the position of head of the Department and teaches several junior and senior classes this subject.

Boy's instructor of biology and health is Mr. John Sorg. He also coaches the reserve basketball and freshman football and is assistant track coach.

Supplying Encouragement to

Mrs. Henry Therrien instructs several classes of Typing I and II and business math.

A familiar face around Luers is Mr. William Thompson. He teaches biology, chemistry, and general math.

Mrs. Kolash, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Temple, and Mrs. Roberson give of their time and effort to prepare nourishing meals for the faculty and students.

Continue Studies

A new addition to Luers this year is Mr. Ronald Volz, who directs the band and twirlers.

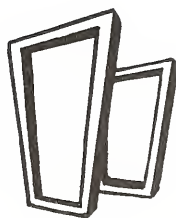

Mr. Healy and Mr. Muldoon devote much of their time to keeping our school grounds in good order.

SENIORS

Not here do they stop: not the challenges, the learning, the accomplishments, the memories. Senior year brought a beginning upon which each senior could build his future. He is the new and turbulent generation. The student of an exact science. Alone with his feelings. Alone with his dreams. Alone, but not lonely.

As Seniors . . .

We entered our senior year amid changes. We were greeted by our new principal, a dedicated faculty, construction work on our new wing, and a status novel to us. We could not ignore the fact that we were finally on top. It was a fabulous feeling! But more important, we realized our obligations as seniors to the under-classes. We owed them our service, our leadership, and our example.

Outstanding in our minds was the initiation of our Student Council. In previous years we had requested such a board, and we realized the trust placed in us with this establishment. We assumed more active roles in our classes and extracurricular activities. In addition to the primary benefits of club membership, many of us were able to establish wonderful relationships with our faculty advisors. This was important to us. We became aware of their interest in us as individual students instead of only as a student body.

Even though we were not indispensable, we felt that we were an intricate part of Luers. Our legacy, and indeed something of each of us, will remain.

Accolade Honors Select Seniors for

Ellen Gildea and Mike Forbing

The Accolade has inaugurated the annual Accolade Awards in establishing a tradition unique to Bishop Luers. The purpose of the awards is to recognize select seniors for their outstanding high school careers.

The faculty members made their choices on the basis of these four categories: academic ability, loyalty, activities, and contributions to the school.

According to the poll the students here presented to you have been selected as outstanding in the Class of '65.

UNDERCLASSMEN

All students and classes were individually distinct. They added to their growth a year of challenge, of opportunity, of success. Developing character and formulating ideals, our underclassmen were evolving through their potential.

As Juniors . . .

It was that special magic in the name "juniors" that told us this would be a wonderful year. No longer underclassmen, we found this year the opportunity for leadership and privileges we had envied as frosh and anxiously awaited as sophomores. Our pride and dignity, took a giant step forward.

Traditions were followed and others we formed. We found ourselves the first to wear school rings and to serve on the new Student Council. The memories of our experiences will be ours forever, but we will value even more the progress we made toward achieving our goals. Possessing a greater maturity, we came to appreciate the priceless aid our teachers gave us in planning our future. They made us accept ourselves as individuals with varying talents, each with a job to do.

The challenge was ours and we met it squarely. Our year was one of progress, leadership, responsibility, maturity, and most of all, pride. In the years to come, when our careers are upon us, we will remember that this year was a link in the chain which led to our goals. And we will remember that in forming that link, our sorrows were few and our joys were without number.

As Sophomores . . .

We delighted in introducing ourselves—a class of vivid imagination, buoyant cheer, and unusual "brainstorms." From the dissection of frogs to the bisection of angles, we were unique in our ideas. We viewed the dazed freshmen with mixed emotions and could see our own past hilarious antics mirrored in them. During this past year we began to understand why a high school education cannot be all fun and games. With our deepening appreciation of our teachers, we took a giant step forward in both learning and maturity. In due time we were accepted as a distinct part in the intricate and tremendous pattern called "Luers."

As Freshmen . . .

As we timidly groped our way through the maze of halls, we found ourselves entering a new phase of life. As freshmen we discovered that our first weeks of school would be filled with confusion and bewilderment. There were the difficulties of mastering combinations, coinciding names with faces, and solving the mysteries of what to do and where to go. Our first homework and quizzes reminded us that high school was really higher education.

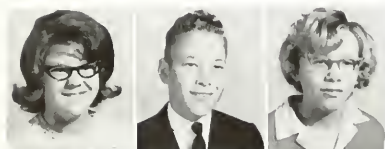

Soon, however, these dilemmas were overcome and we settled down to prove our worth. Although in seniority we were at the bottom, our enthusiasm, participation, and love of school and all its activities were rated high. With the formation of the Student Council, the freshmen were able to voice their opinions through their elected representatives. We wholeheartedly participated in extracurricular activities.

By the second half of our freshman year we had discovered that in high school life, the abundance of homework was far outweighed by the infinite rewards.

High kicks, big smiles and many happy Freshmen helped to make the annual Beatnik party, a rousing success.

You are now completing the 1965 Accolade. The main purpose of our annual, as we understand it, is to tell the story of Bishop Luers. We have tried to do this in the best way that we know—and it has taken 176 pages, 1228 pictures, and approximately 334 days of work. Strictly speaking this is an extracurricular activity, but to us it is much more. It is innumerable frustrations, last minute deadlines, and sometimes frazzled nerves. But it is also opportunity—for intellectual progress, for learning to work with and for people, for countless memories. None of us will ever forget the terrific blunders, the antics of our jokers, or the good times.

Our staff was a tremendous gang of hard-working kids. Their enthusiasm was high in the beginning and the end and, for the most part, in the middle. They adjusted to the academic pressures with flying colors and I'm proud of them. I'm proud to be associated with them and thank them for making my job so pleasant. I wish to take this opportunity to thank so many people: first and foremost, my family for putting up with a sometimes very intolerable yearbook editor; to Father Fulgence for placing his trust in me and his invaluable assistance throughout the year; to Father Clyde for his unbelievable photography and patience; to Father Donnul and Father Brian and the rest of the Administration for their sincere interest and abundance of information from the office; to Sister Columban for her terrific artwork; to Jim Bell and Taylor Publishing Company; to Watters and Delmar studios; to the Faculty and the Student Body for their cooperation. And finally, I extend my heartiest thanks to Peggy for helping me so much not only with planning and editing this Accolade, but also for boosting my morale when we ran into trouble, few times though they were. I hope she will have all the tremendous support that I was fortunate enough to receive from everyone connected with the Accolade and Bishop Luers High School.

And thank you for reading the 1965 Accolade. This has been my reward.

Sincerely,
Ellen Gildea,
Editor

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age has increased by 1.2 billion, from 1.1 billion in 1980 to 2.3 billion in 1999 (United Nations 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of children in the 21st century. The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) has identified the need to ensure that all children have access to quality education, health care, and social services (UNICEF 1999). The World Bank has also identified the need to improve the quality of education and health care for children (World Bank 1999).

One of the key challenges in addressing the needs of children is the need to ensure that they have access to quality education. This is particularly true in developing countries, where the majority of children are in primary school. In many of these countries, the quality of education is poor, and many children do not complete their primary education.

One of the reasons for this is the lack of resources. Many schools in developing countries do not have enough teachers, and the quality of the teaching is poor. In addition, many schools do not have enough books or other educational materials. This means that children are not getting the best possible education.

Another reason for the poor quality of education is the lack of interest in education. Many children in developing countries do not see the value of education, and they do not want to go to school. This is often because they are poor, and they need to work to help support their families.

There are many ways to improve the quality of education for children in developing countries. One way is to increase the number of teachers and improve the quality of the teaching. Another way is to provide more books and other educational materials. A third way is to make education more relevant to the needs of the children.

One of the most important ways to improve the quality of education is to make it more relevant to the needs of the children. This means that the curriculum should be based on the children's lives and experiences. It should also include practical skills that the children will need to use in their daily lives.

There are many other ways to improve the quality of education for children in developing countries. The key is to find ways that work for the children and their families. Only then can we ensure that all children have access to quality education.
